

PROTECTING CIVILIANS IN CONFLICT: VIEWS FROM THE SOUTH

19 September 2014

Villa Sterne, Pretoria

WORKSHOP AGENDA

Friday, 19 September 2014

08h30-09h00 Registration

09h00-09h15 Opening and Welcome

09h15-09h45 A Humanitarian Perspective on the Protection of Civilians
Jürg Eglin, Head of the ICRC Pretoria Regional Delegation

09h45-11h15 Panel One: Regional Organisations as Security Manager

Speaker:

Chris Alden, SAIIA/LSE

Discussant:

Simon Badza, AU Commission Peace and Security Department

11h15-11h30 Coffee/tea break

11h30-13h00 Panel Two: The International Criminal Court, R2P and the prevention of mass atrocities

Speaker:

Martin Mennecke, International Law, University of Copenhagen (Visiting Fellow, ICC)

Discussant:

Ottilia Anna Maunganidze, Institute for Security Studies

13h00-13h45 Lunch

13h45-15h15 Panel Three: R2P vs. Protection of Civilians - South Africa's perspective on conflict resolution

Speaker:

Judy Smith-Höhn, SAIIA

Discussant:

Malte Brosig, University of Witwatersrand

15h15-15h30 Closing

Chris Alden, SAIIA